

PORT HALLORAN · 17-19 OCTOBER

The Lamplight Festival

Forty-two gas lamps, lit by hand, one last time.

Three nights. One lighthouse.

Get a quay pass

FREE ENTRY TO THE QUAY

ALL AGES

Three nights of lamplight

FRI 17 · 19:00

The lamp walk

Follow Wren along the quay as all forty-two lamps are lit by hand.

42

gas lamps

SAT 18 · 20:30

Storm-light screening

FORTY-THREE, the short film, projected on the harbour wall.

1

lighthouse

SUN 19 · 21:00

The lighthouse lens

Climb the tower and watch the Fresnel lens turn by clockwork.

3

nights

FREE

STEP-FREE QUAY

BRING A LANTERN

RAIN OR SHINE

Good to know

Lamps are lit at dusk; arrive ten minutes early

The tower climb has 134 steps and no lift

Gas lamps are hot: keep small hands at a distance

Meet the people behind the light

Wren Halloran

Lamplighter

Has lit Port Halloran's lamps for thirty-one years.

Mara Quill

Lighthouse keeper

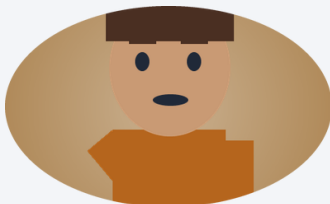

Keeps the Fresnel lens turning, storm or calm.

Tomas Reyes

Electric company engineer

Wired the new lights, then kept a lamp for himself.

"I came for the lamps and stayed for the storm."

Ada, age 9

Festival regular

Choose your pass

MOST POPULAR

Quay walk

Keeper's pass

Patron

Free

£12

£40

Friday lamp walk
Harbour screening

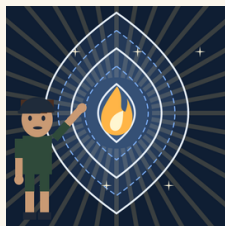

All three nights
Lighthouse climb
Reserved seat

Keeper's pass
Signed film print
Light a lamp yourself

Book

Book

Book

Fresnel lens print

£25

NEW

Lantern-light mug

£14

Passes go on sale 1 October

lamplight.example/tickets

```
rebuild this programme
python explorations/
  14-festival-programme/build.py
→ 4 pages · 7 photos · 0 imports
```